Leveraging Your Leadership Style Workbook John Jackson, Lorraine Bosse-Smith

Self-leadership, family leadership, work-team leadership, and community leadership are all about people learning to tap into and trust their leadership potential and their leadership style!

The workbook companion to Leveraging Your Leadership Style provides practical exercises through which leaders can begin to apply their leadership style (determined through the book's exclusive behavioral assessment) to their own careers and organizations. Case studies offer users the opportunity to analyze how they would respond to various leadership situations, in light of their leadership style and that of others in the scenario. Through their tried-and-true, seminar-tested techniques, Bossé-Smith and Jackson help users reflect and capitalize on their own individual style of leadership.
