Love, Loss, Renewal, and the Ribbons That Guide Us All

How does a professional actress and aspiring writer, big-city born & bred, handle her third move in five years? Each change in her lifestyle has been the result of a family tragedy, and Samantha Borden Garrett questions whether she can do it again.

This time, her move takes her to a small town in Virginia. Once settled, helping her mother run a bed-and-breakfast inn, Samantha begins to discover fresh paths: with both new and established friends, an unexpected romance, and an opportunity for another career. All these paths twist and intertwine, like ribbons weaving through Samantha's life.

During an extended trip to England, to further her writing career, Samantha's ribbons continue to guide her, and spark changes in her. Through times of both great happiness and enormous sadness, she will ultimately understand that the ribbons of her life combine to show her the right paths to pursue.
