All you want is real love. You're not alone. We all do, whether we admit it or not. In order to experience real love we must be prepared to get real about love. Our concept of love will determine our experience in love relationships. Get Real uncovers nine myths about love and relationships which we have held on to tenaciously, and confronts the reality of loving like God intended. This book will help you successfully navigate through the single season by uncovering and celebrating your uniqueness, quickly eliminate distractions and identify God-given relationships, heal from heartbreak by using the lessons learnt as fuel for your future and build an enduring love relationship that will go the distance. What myths have you believed? It's time to get real.
