Vows of Secrecy, Book 3

In the steamy conclusion to the Vows of Secrecy series, the billionaire's bride of convenience must finally choose her path.

Ever since she was a teenager, Lydia has been told that there was no chance of her ever conceiving a child. Now, however, she's pregnant with a miracle.

If only she could say the same about her marriage to the drop dead gorgeous but frosty billionaire Maddox Hale. Though they both seem to make attempts at connecting, the stark differences between the two send their scorching desire for one another up in smoke.

When her health threatens the livelihood of the child growing within her, Lydia finds herself desperately wishing that Maddox would support her. What she wants more than anything is for the deep love she has in her heart for her husband to be reciprocated.

They were married for money, after all... is that all it ever will be?
