Life hasn't been easy for Sir Colton Drake over the centuries. Separated from the woman he loves and tasked with a seemingly impossible mission, his hunt for Black Sean mac Lyr takes him to all corners of the globe. He hires himself out as a mercenary and bounty hunter, but his quarry seems to know his every move before he makes it. How does Black Sean know whenever Colton draws near? How does his sworn enemy always escape at the last possible moment?

Setting foot in Boston, Massachusetts Colony in 1741, Colton believes he is finally closing in on his quarry. However, he will learn that all is not as it seems with his elusive enemy, or even those he considers his friends and family!

A new Crusade beckons, when the Colonies break away from Mother England, and Colton Drake must choose a side.

A new Crusade begins. A Nation will rise, and Vengeance will fall!
