Life has a way of throwing curve balls, and Roxanne Frump has just been blindsided by the biggest one of her 41 years. As frumpy as her last name suggests, she is an overweight, single, 41 year old, who has never been on a date, yet finds herself pregnant. How can this be? That's what her strict Catholic mother wants to know too, but Roxanne isn't talking. Until she has no choice. A young girl's life hangs in the balance and what Roxanne has to say could make all the difference. She has never been a fighter, but she is fast becoming one. Fighting for her fellow rape victims against all odds, fighting for the life of her son, for a neighbor boy whose mother goes to prison, for her best friend who is even frumpier than she is, worn down by her dysfunctional parents. Fighting for a new life at this stage of the game, with the man she has come to love. This is a heartwarming story of a family that is forged from broken pieces and shattered dreams. His Hand in Mine is a love story in the truest sense of the word.
