Flawless: Perfection has a Price (Final Choices) (Volume 1) Dawn M. Garcia

Kathryn Bradford is determined to give her daughter a life of happiness and security. When her husband dies in a car accident, she is haunted by her past failures. Kathryn's icy heart protects her and keeps her alone. One day, a mysterious, yet familiar man saves her from a vicious dog. He spins her world, even when she tries to stop the rotation. Jared Williamson is handsome, strong, protective, and gentle towards Kathryn. Confused by the power in his touch and the sense of familiarity he sparks within her, Kathryn's heart begins to melt. As he breaks through her resistance, he triggers a release of memories, causing the secrets buried deep inside Kathryn's fragile mind to storm to the surface. Secrets she worked hard to hide forever taunt her. Layer by layer, the truth reveals itself. Can she bear to know everything that happened in her past and how the mysterious stranger fits into her life? When an old enemy threatens to steal everything Kathryn values and loves, Jared reminds her of the power inside her that time, trauma, and evil sources stole from her. She must decide: will she use the force within her to fight the biggest battle of her life or will she give in to the evil taunting her? To win, she will gain freedom from the chains that bind her and win the man she loves—the man who is the key that unravels her past, restores her present, and defines her future. To lose, it will cost her everything— including her destiny and her soul.
