Hat Trick Nancy Larsen Chapin

Young, ambitious, and beautiful, Hatsy Hall protects her broken heart by throwing herself into being the best property manager in all of Silicon Valley. After her fiancé abandons her at the alter, Hatsy decides to prioritize work over anything remotely resembling love.

So Hatsy devotes herself to managing the prestigious, Arboretum apartment complex in Cupertino, dedicating her time and energy to guiding her staff and balancing the comfort and needs of her tenants. Her good work catches the eye of the corporate office in New York City, propelling Hatsy's career to even greater heights when they view her as a team leader in their green building global expansion.

But love has a way of finding us even when we don't want it to, and before long, Hatsy is torn between meeting her career goals and following her heart. New York beckons her, but does California hold something to keep her? Will Hatsy allow love to rearrange her life and her heart?

A charming story about growing up, discovering your way in life, and saying "yes" to love, Hat Trick features a loveable heroine and a delightful ensemble cast of characters who will keep you turning the pages long into the night.
