The ancient philosophy of stoicism is as relevant in modernity as it was in ancient times. Through the centuries the precepts of stoicism has been best illustrated through the lives of great men and women. The Obstacle is The Way is a presentation of the men and women who have used this philosophy to lead successful lives. Emperors like the Roman Marcus Aurelius, wealthy merchants like Seneca and teachers like Epictetus set down the maxims followed by thousands of history's greatest men and women. There are dozens of anecdotes and stories illuminating the practical application of this time-honored operating system for living life. From the lives of ancients like Demosthenes the orator to moderns like Ulysses S. Grant, The Wright Brothers, Steve Jobs and more. Here is an easy to digest understanding of a philosophy's ability to enhance our lives.
