The Shulamite Principle: A Study of Song of Songs Sheila F Whitlock

This book is a guide given to us by King Solomon. As a graduate seminary student in Jewish Studies, the author uses the Hebrew language of the text to assist the reader in the study of the Song of Songs. Following the principles outlined, it will help the reader realize their purpose and calling. The author takes the reader through the journey of the Shulamite bride to reveal how she reunites with her bridegroom. The Shulamite principle is self-awareness, distraction removal, obedience, and service.
