FINALLY, A BOOK ABOUT ADVOCACY WRITTEN FOR AND BY ADVOCATES

In this...the only complete book that focuses on advocacy from the Event to emotional healing...Joni Aldrich and Chris Jerry bring advocacy into the much-needed spotlight with their own combined twenty years of experiences, and those of other advocates on Advocacy Heals U, the radio program.

"Our legacy does not end with the closing of the day or even with our final breath; it continues through infinite possibilities for hopeful tomorrows--one cause, one person at a time." ~Joni Aldrich

Advocacy is Personal

The Event: A turning point in your life that forever changes your perspective. It can be a diagnosis, a medical error, a natural disaster, and so forth. It's not a tap on your bumper; the Event is a head-on collision.

The Need: Through the Event, you learn something critical that other people need to know, or that you need to act on.

The Call: The Call is a strong internal need to do something based on the Event and the Need.

The Advocacy: Your advocacy may be speaking up for yourself, for someone else, or speaking out for a cause that you believe in based on the Need.

The Benefits: Some benefits start immediately; just taking action on any level can feel good and be personally rewarding. No advocacy too large; no advocacy too small.

Advocates represent through "ah ha" moments of clarity and even unimaginable loss--realities we would never choose for ourselves.

Advocates represent others (who still cannot see the danger ahead) to help them before or after they fall victim to the same life-changing Event.

Advocacy represents healing.

Advocacy represents best with acceptance from family and friends.

Advocacy represents a new family made up of like-minded advocates!

Advocacy is rising!
