Calum's Sword - Inspired by the great Bernard Cornwell Sharpe: Episode 1 (Clan) Leigh Barker
CLAN - Season 1: Calum's Sword. Episode 1 of 12 rip-roaring adventures following a true hero in a time of war.

"A edge-of-your-seat Saturday matinee!"

Now in the hugely successful Bitesize Read format - a 1-hour read.

Calum Maclean is a sword-for-hire and a thorn in the side of anyone who sets himself up as Authority.

He returns to the Highlands from the war in Flanders where he fought for the English, for a price, to find Bonnie Prince Charlie has arrived and war with the English is inevitable.

Everyone thinks Calum will obey the Pretender.

Everyone is wrong. Calum Maclean tips his hat to no man.

When his former love asks him to fetch her man from the English army, he accepts without hesitation. It's a noble cause, and Calum can't resist a noble cause. Even if it might cost him his life.

The journey has begun!

A wee note: Clan was inspired by the great Bernard Cornwell's Sharpe stories. Though historical accurate, it's not a Historical Novel, it's a roller-coaster adventure in 12 1-hour episodes. Each one a complete story with a beginning, middle and end. And a cliff-hanger, in the true tradition of the Saturday Matinee genre.

Reviews:

"A series of Saturday matinees! Brilliant! Pure escapism, and great fun."

"If you enjoyed following the adventures of Richard Sharpe and his sidekick, Partrick, then you'll enjoy Calum and Big John."

"Looking forward to reading the rest of this series. Would recommend it to anyone interested in this time period of Scottish history!"

"OK it's not Bernard Cornwell, but it never said it was – it's just a great read I highly recommend"

"Great!"

"Good fast read with plenty of tension. Look forward to the next episode. Have got the next three episodes on kindle."

“Can't wait to read the next one - Hope there is more to come in the series and life of Calum Maclean”
