Works of John Wesley John Wesley

The complete text of the fourteen-volume collection of Wesley's works edited by Thomas Jackson in 1831 provides the database for this innovative CD-ROM project. This compact disc revolutionizes Wesleyan study today by providing instant access to Wesley's sermons, letters, and discourses. The CD also includes the entire text of the King James Version of the Bible. Hypertext links enable the user to move freely between Wesley's biblical citations and the quotations as they appear in the Scriptures. This is the most effective research tool currently available in the world of Wesleyan study. (Windows and Macintosh Compatible!)
