Diane Clark

This book is a wonderful resource for those planning non-religious, Christian or non-Christian religious funeral or memorial services. The prayers, poems, and literary readings have been thoughtfully selected to offer comfort to diverse groups of mourners.

All of the selected poems, readings and prayers are appropriate whether you are planning the funeral or memorial service, writing and giving the eulogy, or speaking or reading at the wake.

Using these poems, readings, and prayers as part of the grieving process, whether in the funeral or memorial program, remembrance cards, wildflower packets, or thank you notes, can help comfort you, your family, and friends of the deceased as well as help express your thoughts during this time of loss and grief .
