Qu'est ce que l'islam ? Que doit cette religion à la prédication de Mahomet ?

Au fil de ma lecture du Coran, de la biographie de Mahomet, de la découverte du discours musulman et de mes discussions avec des musulmans, je n'ai jamais pu me départir d'un sentiment de malaise et d'incompréhension vis à vis de ce qui m'apparaissait comme les contradictions de cette religion.

Pour tâcher de les expliquer, j'ai cherché à en savoir davantage sur ses origines historiques. C'est ainsi que j'ai découvert le travail du Père Edouard-Marie Gallez, docteur en théologie et histoire des religions, et que je l'ai rencontré. Sa thèse, intitulée Le Messie et son Prophète, et nos échanges m'ont fait découvrir quantité de recherches historiques passionnantes. Elles ont transformé ma vision de l'islam en me révélant une tout autre histoire que celle que le discours ambiant veut faire croire : l'islam n'est pas le résultat d'une révélation divine – ou de la prédication de Mahomet – mais celui d'un processus très long et très complexe de réécriture de l'Histoire, s'enracinant dans des croyances juives et chrétiennes dévoyées, et manipulé par les califes pour satisfaire leurs visées de domination politique.

Cette découverte restait encore à ce jour quasi inconnue du public. La faute sans doute à la complexité du sujet et à son caractère très sensible qui l'ont confiné dans les cercles très restreints de la recherche. Comment alors la rendre accessible au plus grand nombre ? Comment l'expliquer et la replacer dans une perspective historique ? Comment les travaux les plus récents ont-ils pu la confirmer ? C'est ce à quoi j'espère contribuer avec le Grand secret de l'islam, fruit d'une longue recherche personnelle et de ma collaboration avec Edouard-Marie Gallez.

Au monde de découvrir maintenant quel est le « grand secret » de l'islam.
