“Honor your own stories and tell them too. The tales may not seem very important but they are what binds families and makes each of us who we are.” These words of Madeleine L’Engle became the theme for the CMY Reunion the summer of 2015. We came together to tell stories and listen to the stories of others in this group we call family. Now we have the stories of the reunion itself to tell. We hope this collection of pictures will bring those memories back to mind, that the memories will bring you good cheer, and beyond that, that you will use these pictures to tell the stories. “Remember when....”
