I'm sitting in my office, glued to the computer screen, and sponging in these great ideas. This may be the best $27.00 I have spent on a book in several years. I really like that each strategy is presented by the photographer who uses it. I also like your comments to wrap up each chapter. With each strategy, I'm getting more and more enthusiastic and excited. So many ideas and approaches that I would never have thought of on my own.

The more I read, the more I think if they can do it, so can I. - Greg
