Was it because she was the weak link as many have wrongly assumed? Not at all. The exact answer is simple. Being the master of craftiness, the devil knew that the woman was the life of the man; that she was created to complete the man. He knew she was the POWERHOUSE of the man, created to be the pillar of support and sustenance for him. He knew that once the pillar collapses, the building crumbles. Most importantly, the devil knew that the material with which the woman was created was LOADED with all that the man needed to have a meaningful, blissful and successful life, while fulfilling God's purpose for him. Therefore, to destroy the man and indeed humanity as a whole, he needed to get the woman. - You as the wife will know what you are made up of and your excellent worth. - Every married man (the husband) will undoubtedly understand how to tap into hidden treasures in his wife to accelerate his destiny. - You will be able to remove barriers hindering intimacy between husband and wife. - You will understand that God does no longer gives wife. - You will know how to treat your wife as God intended it.
