Drug abuse threatens the very fabric of family life within the US. The President is determined to stop the flow of illegal drugs leaking through its borders that is killing America's youth and financing international terrorist operations. When a long term deep cover DEA undercover operative is killed and a mole is discovered within his own administration, the President feels he has failed. That is until Clint Bear, an American Indian raised Apache, former Navy Seal and Special Ops officer, is recruited as the replacement. Clint has little time to stop a new and very lethal drug, White Ice, from hitting the streets and killing hundreds of thousands of unsuspecting Americans.
