Can men and women just be friends?

Farah is twenty-three year old and in a happy and committed relationship. When she befriends her new coworker she suddenly begins to notice all the flaws in her relationship and the shortcomings of her boyfriend Raheem. Soon she becomes too close for comfort with her new found friend and as her feelings begin to change she does the unthinkable.

Marco is twenty-five and fresh home from a three year prison stretch for dealing drugs. When he decides to go straight, he lands a job where he meets a beautiful woman that shakes him to the core. He tries to work on his relationship with the mother of his child, but a new bond becomes a huge distraction. When Marco plays the friendship game with Farrah he is sent on a hot pursuit that's wilder than any chase police could ever offer him. Hearts and lives are put at risk before things come to a boiling point in this deeply engrossing, forbidden love tale.
