Now that Faith has found what she has been missing all her years with her ex, she is ready to give her all to Princeton. The man just seems too good to be true though. As her ex, Devon is accused of murder he didn't commit, her feelings are truly tested. Will her loyalty be to the man she knows in her heart is innocent, or to the man she feels is her forever? Is she willing to go to war for the man she has chosen as things go past a point of no return? Is she truly Fit For a King?

Devon is trying to figure out how he landed in such a predicament, and keeps coming to the same conclusion... Prince. With his mind set on getting out and taking revenge, will he be able to pull off what he has planned from day one and take down the King once and for all?

Princeton now has the woman he has longed for from the beginning. Though things between them are not as solid as he would like, there is no mistaking the love they share... A love worth killing and dying for. As the battle lines are drawn and everyone after the queen, will he continue to stay one step ahead or will he lose his queen and his throne?

Follow this story of love, money, sex, and murder to find out who Faith will choose as her One True King!
