Chengli is an orphaned errand boy who lives in Chang'an China in 630 A.D. His mother has died from illness and his father is presumed dead after disappearing into the desert when Chengli was a baby. Now thirteen, Chengli feels ready for independence. He is drawn to the desert, beckoned by the howling of strange winds and the hope of learning something about his father—who he was and how he died.

Chengli joins the caravan to travel down the merchant route known as the Silk Road, but it is a dangerous life, as his father knew. The desert is harsh, and there are many bandits, particularly drawn to Chengli's caravan because a princess, her servants, and royal guards are traveling with them. This story invites readers to experience the sights, sounds, and smells of this fabled desert route.

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Chengli and the Silk Road Caravan can make you really feel more interested to read.
