I Could Not Save Mahatma Gandhi: Untold Stories from a Witness's Diary Jain, Jagdishchandra

This book has its genesis in this unpublished diary which is an invaluable document. Jain, the Chief Prosecution Witness of the Mahatma Gandhi Murder Trial, paints a vivid picture of the assassination plot and the predicament he faced when his repeated warnings to the Government fell on deaf ears. The authorities chose to ignore the definite clues, given by him risking his life, and most shockingly the book shows how the Administration failed to protect Gandhi.
