If you could look at the heart of humanity through the eyes of God, what would you see? Paul's letter to the Romans offers just such a perspective. It is a piercing analysis of a fallen world and of God's infinitely wise plan for its redemption. Studying Romans will show you the incredible scope of what God accomplished through Christ. You will discover faith's key role. You will learn how your new identity in Christ frees you from sin to serve God gladly. And you will come to see the church, the world, and yourself in a new way -- through God's eyes.
