Their reasons for making the journey were all different but the dangers and the hardships were the same for everyone on the wagon train as it blazed a new trail. For Alicia Henshall and her young daughter Louise Jane it would be an epic and unforgettable journey into the unknown. Those who survived the adventure would not only find new challenges, but discover that love and hope can blossom in the toughest of conditions. Their lives would be forever changed. From the author of the highly acclaimed SANTA FE SISTERS, this is a story of courage and discovery set in the years immediately after the bloody American Civil War, combining real events and strong fictional characters.
