Damage Done Virginia Duke

*Disclaimer: This story is not a fairy tale. This story is a romance drama about real people with real problems and how they find their own version of an old fashioned Happily Ever After. Damage Done contains adult themes and content.

Rachel spent years piecing her life back together, and just like her mother promised, she's now the woman with everything- a beautiful family, a white picket fence, and she just scored a huge sponsor for her charity's annual fundraising gala.

But her husband is sleeping downstairs, her son can't stop getting in trouble at school, her toddler is on the fast track to the stage at the local strip club, and she's desperate not to lose everything she's worked so hard for.

Dylan has tried everything to forget her, but life isn't exactly pulling any punches lately; and when a tragic accident brings them face to face again, he needs something pure to distract him, something explosive and raw.

As Rachel finds herself confronting demons long buried, her already fragile world threatens to shatter around her. She helps people in crisis for a living, so why does her own body warn TOTAL SYSTEM FAILURE when she faces conflict of her own? Will she ever learn to fight for herself without hurting the people she loves the most?
