Anti-Money Laundering: A Guide for the Non-Executive Director (UK Edition): Everything any Director or Partner of a UK Firm Covered by the Money ... Board's Responsibilities Relating to AML/CFT Susan Grossey

This book is aimed at non-executive directors of UK firms covered by the Money Laundering Regulations. These Regulations place requirements on such firms to put in place policies and procedures to prevent and forestall money laundering and terrorist financing - and hold the directors of those firms responsible for ensuring that this is done to the required standard. It is essential that every director - whether executive or non-executive - is aware of the heightened requirements of the UK's AML/CFT regime, and of his specific responsibilities under the four tenets of that regime: customer due diligence, record-keeping, internal reporting, and staff training.
