A 19TH CENTURY MURDER MYSTERY! When starvationists, professional hungerers who serve as sideshow entertainment and circus attractions, start getting murdered in their cages, the police realize that a killer is on the loose. But what sick mind would target a starvationist? And how do you trap him? To catch a lion, you need a goat. And the cops think they have the perfect goat for the job: naturally scrawny Constable Weensy. Sacrificing his health and sanity, Weensy goes undercover as a starvationist himself in a desperate ploy to solve the case...but can the constable catch the killer before the hunger gets him first? A 125 pages black & white graphic novel by Guido Vrolix, inspired by "A Hunger Artist" by Franz Kafka.
