Mexicago, Volume Two: Evidence is a compilation of the original documents that have created Sanctuary Policy in the City of Chicago. In this Volume 2 you will find the full text of all four Sanctuary Policy Executive Orders issued by Chicago Mayors. You'll see the Illinois Statute that designates the matricula consular card as a valid form of ID in Illinois. The Cook County Resolutions that promoted Illegal immigration, the matricula consular card, the homeowners exemption going to illegal immigrants, in their original full format. The citizens of Chicago are not aware of these documents, and they are gathered here for the first time. Also included are maps of the City of Chicago showing Hispanic areas, the highly gerrymandered 4th Congressional District of Luis Gutierrez, photos of news events taken by the Author. It is a unique collection that has never been published before, or even mentioned by the print and television news media of Chicago.
