Princeton Review SAT Power Vocab Princeton Review

SAT Power Vocab provides essential vocabulary prep for the SAT and helps students improve their Critical Reading, Writing, and Essay scores. Scoring high on the SAT is a huge boost for college applicants and many students need all the help they can get with the vocabulary for the exam. SAT Power Vocab includes over 2,500 words and definitions to help students build more powerful vocabularies and succeed on the verbal section of the SAT. It also provides students with lists of important word roots and common usage errors. Plus there are quick quizzes throughout the book so that students can test themselves as they learn. Building a better vocabulary is a crucial component of SAT verbal success, but there are some words that are more likely to appear on the SAT than others. SAT Power Vocab also includes a HIT PARADE of words that are often on the exam so that students can focus their study.
