This volume contains detailed solutions for every other odd problem in Chapters 22-41 of Tipler's Physics for Scientist and Engineers, Fourth Edition. The solutions are written in easy-to-read, step-by-step format and contain the problem statements. To help strengthen your problem-solving skills, many of the solutions are worked out in a two-column format, with explanations provided in the left column and calculations in the right column. Frank J. Blatt, Professor Emeritus, taught physics at Michigan State University for 32 years. He earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering from M.I.T. and the Ph.D. in physics from the University of Washington.
