All for the Love of Music John Schroeder

All for the Love of Music is the journey through John Schroeder's life - after having completed National Service to landing his dream job with E.M.I Records. John's discovery of Helen Shapiro, and later penning her number 1 hit Walking Back to Happiness made John a household name. During his time in the music industry, John worked with world renowned artists and musicians including Status Quo, Geno Washington and Sounds Orchestral. John details his rich experiences of what it was like to produce award-winning songs, as well as the treacherous path of founding a record label. All for the Love of Music relives the joys and successes, pitfalls and failures throughout John's career, which spans over 50 years, as one of the most widely acclaimed and talented record producers in modern music history. Scattered with photographs that beautifully illustrate his successful career, All for the Love of Music regales John's time at the forefront of the music industry. This book will be enjoyed by those with a passion for music and those who wish to know more about the music industry from someone who's experienced it all.
