Fancy is a teen mother who had to do whatever she needed to in order to survive. Luck hasn't been on her side in wanting better for her daughter and siblings. One incident leads to another resulting in her using her body to get what she wants. Now she's fed up with that life and is ready to move on to something better. Rafael is a teacher who is easy on the eyes and has a soft spot for a certain someone. He's going through problems at home which lead him to help someone out to satisfy his needs while he pays for the service. Now that the cat is out the bag, will he fight for the one he loves or make things right with his wife? Columbus "Cue" is fresh out of prison from doing an eight-year bid. Now that he's out, he's trying to stay on the right path by building more businesses, and maintaining the one his brother, Chance, started for him called, The Youth Center. Even though he wants to keep his hands clean, it's hard when he has people that are used to him being the "go-to man" and his loyalty is involved. Will Cue stay clean and do right or will his loyalty to those who matter to him cause his downfall? This is an urban tale of the only strongest survive. It's filled with lust, drama, and deceit. Everyone is chasing after one thing and that's love, but what does it cost?
