Eight By Ten Ellis Drew

The story of inmate, Jimmy Dorio, who is about to be released after more than three decades in a psychiatric prison, toggles back and forth from his life in prison to a brief stretch of his childhood, providing you with a unique view into the heart and mind of a complex, brilliant, and twisted individual. Jimmy's interactions with his doctors, fellow inmates and family members transports you deep into his world and is both deadly serious and wildly hysterical at the same time. Jimmy's voice will resonate with just about all of us, forcing you to reexamine your understanding of yourself, your daily reality and your role in society. Oh, and read carefully, because the story is never what it appears to be.
