Indianapolis, Indiana: A Photographic Portrait Richard W. Clark

Description: Photographer Richard Clark captures the contemporary and historic sides of the city of Indianapolis throughout this book. A city revered for its world-class sporting venues including the Indy 500 and the NBA's Indiana Pacers, Indianapolis is also the Hoosier State, where rustic frontiersmen paved the way westward and mined the famed limestone of Oolitic County, Indiana that built time honored structures that established this metropolis as the cross-roads of America". Clark's photography illustrates the beauty of Indianapolis' public gardens and parks, rivers and historic homes throughout the region's four seasons. The arts abound downtown as is evident in these Indianapolis photographs of the luminous Indianapolis Arts Garden, numerous theatrical, dance and symphonic organizations, the city's jazz and blues scene, and museums. Home to respected universities, elegant architecture, and numerous cultural festivals, Indianapolis is a great American city.
