29 country music legends share their intimate and inspiring stories of hope, struggle, faith and triumph. They are the hit-makers...the superstars who sing in rhythm with the heartbeat of America. Their songs touch our lives in a special way, and their music fills our hearts with emotion. We know them as stars, but what are they really like when the glitter and glamour of show-business is stripped away? What struggles have they overcome? How have they grown? And who helped them along the way? Hear it all, directly from the celebrities themselves, in this star-studded treasury called I Saw Him in Your Eyes. This 225 page volume is packed with richly colorful photographs, many never-before-seen images from the stars' own personal albums. You are sure to be inspired by each one of these deeply personal stories, straight from the heart of America's Country Music legends. Get a backstage pass to some of the hottest acts in country music with this inside look into the private lives of your favorite stars. Learn intimate details of their pasts, their hopes, their dreams. Discover stories of faith, tales of endurance, lessons of forgiveness and redeeming love as each one struggled to climb the country music charts.

Go behind the scenes and into their hearts. In this giant hardcover treasury, the Kings and Queens of Country open their hearts about the people and events that shaped their careers. They share how they found the courage to follow their dreams and make it to the top, paying special tribute to the person who most influenced them along the way. Be inspired by the intimately personal stories of some of country music's all-time greats, like Charlie Daniels, Connie Smith, Marty Stuart, Barbara Fairchild, Lionel Cartwright, The Mandrells, Pat Boone, Travis Tritt, and many others. This unique collector's edition combines the rich look of leather and colorful personal photographs from the artists themselves to make a timeless treasure. And the stories within its pages will bring you back to it again and again. Hear how Ricky Van Shelton overcame his battle with alcohol, and how he found the courage to rise again... Find out why Barbara Mandrell almost didn't make it into the world... Discover how Dale Evans Rogers overcame devastating poverty and single-motherhood as she followed her dream to the top... Hear Larry Gatlin tell how he survived the alcohol addiction that almost killed him... Find out who was Reba McEntire's greatest inspiration.... Filled with dozens of beautiful color photos and inspiring stories, this is a book you will want to read again and again. These are the stories and insights that are usually reserved for close friends and family. What they reveal about themselves is so close-to-the-heart that you are sure to feel a special bond with each of them. Written by award-winning author Ace Collins, this beautiful and inspiring book will touch your heart in a powerful way.
