Learning to submit has never been so romantic.

Charlotte Wainscott has spent her youth in holy devotion, preparation for joining a convent as her sisters did before her. But when her family falls on hard times, she is instead forced into the hands of the wicked Lord Rutherford. His Lordship intends to introduce his new fiancée to the debauched company he keeps but first she must forget all she knows about the virtues of chastity and decorum.

As Charlotte struggles to follow her Lord's rules, she finds he has some unusual methods for disciplining his new wife, and if she continues to insist on behaving like a child, he is going to begin treating her like one.

Forgive Me is the first book in Lucy Wild's number 1 bestselling Restraint series, a Victorian romance of age play and submission. If you like historical erotica, you'll love reading this tale of power unbridled and innocence corrupted.
