An illustrated introduction to the life and times of Jesus, The Jesus Encyclopedia is a refreshing, appealing, and accessible guide that provides a comprehensive look into Jesus' life. The episodes from his life are told through extracts and adaptations from the gospels, carefully selected and arranged to present his birth and boyhood, the start of his ministry, his teachings, parables and miracles, his friends and enemies, the events leading up to his death, and the impact of his resurrection. Linking this to historical background and explaining how the gospels came to be written, this book portrays a complete picture of Jesus Christ.
